

Illinois Theatre

Spring 2020: Supplemental Form, The Wolves

Please print all information clearly

Please know that the information on this form DOES NOT dictate the final product, it only reflects what the production team CURRENTLY anticipates for the production. It is understood that the rehearsal process may lead to the discovery and development of the work and will be an ongoing conversation with the production team and cast.

The following paragraph outlines some of what the production team currently anticipates will be called for in this production of Titus Andronicus:

This production will require all cast members to participate in a variety of physical activities related to soccer, including movement drills, stretching, running, manipulating a soccer ball (passing, juggling, kicking, etc.). One character (#00) takes off her shirt and wears only a sports bra and shorts for a significant part of a scene. The specifics related to soccer drills and ball handling will be coached throughout the rehearsal process.

With the information above in mind, are you willing to:

Appear onstage in a sports bra and shorts?	Yes	No	Unsure	N/A
Do you anticipate any trouble manipulating a soccer ball during this production?	Yes	No	Unsure	N/A
Do you anticipate any trouble running during this production?	Yes	No	Unsure	N/A
Do you anticipate any trouble stretching during this production?	Yes	No	Unsure	N/A
Are you willing to shave your head fully?	Yes	No	Unsure	N/A
Are you willing to shave your head partially?	Yes	No	Unsure	N/A

Do you have any experience playing soccer? Yes / No If yes, please elaborate below.

IF you would like to elaborate on any of your answers, or if there is any other information regarding your personal boundaries you would like us to know after completing this form? Please explain below.

If you have further questions about any of this, or your answers, this conversation can continue during callbacks.

Printed Name

Signature

Date